

BTEC Public Services

Why study Public Services ?

The BTEC in Public Services is targeted at students who would like to gain employment in the public services sector, particularly the emergency services and armed forces. This course will develop leadership and team building skills and provides an excellent foundation for a career in the Public Services. The qualifications will develop students' abilities through the knowledge and skills taught on the programme

What will I study?

Government, Policies and the Public Services

Leadership and teamwork in the Public Services

Citizenship and Diversity in the Public Services

International Institutions and Human Rights

Outdoor Expeditions

Career planning for the Public Services

Study trips, visits and events

Houses of Parliament, London Trip

Army Visit to School

Visit to HMS Flying Fox

Walking Expedition (1 day)

Did you know.....?

The public services are at the forefront of your daily lives. Decisions are being made on your behalf that affect your future.

On this course you will learn about how this happens and what you can do about it.

Why I chose Public Services

"I was interested in developing my leadership skills and understanding how different public services operate in my community."

Harry, Yr 13

"I have always been interested in politics and learning about the way in which governments are formed and operate was exciting."

Kia, Yr 13

Subject entry requirements

4 in Maths, plus 4 in either English Literature or Language